NEWS RELEASE For Immediate Release

MAJOR DAVIS GRADUATES FBI NATIONAL ACADEMY

The Lexington Police Department is pleased to announce that Major Matt Davis has graduated from the FBI's National Academy Program at Quantico, Virginia. The 262nd Session of the National Academy consisted of men and women from 47 states. Included in the class are members of law enforcement agencies from the District of Columbia, 27 international countries, four military organizations, and two federal civilian organizations. FBI Director James Comey was the principal speaker at the graduation ceremony.

Chief Green said, "We are extremely proud to have an individual of Matt's experience and caliber as part of our agency. His completion of the FBI National Academy program is a significant accomplishment which will help us to continue to provide excellent service to the citizens of the Town."

Major Davis said, "The F.B.I. National Academy is a once in a lifetime leadership and educational experience which less than 1% of all Law Enforcement Officers worldwide are able to attend. The mission of the F.B.I.N.A. is "to support, promote, and enhance the personal and professional development of law enforcement leaders by preparing them for complex, dynamic, and contemporary challenges through innovative techniques, facilitating excellence in education and research, and forging partnerships throughout the world." Over the course of the ten week program I participated in a wide range of leadership and specialized training where we shared ideas, techniques, and our experiences with each other. I was able to create lifelong colleagues and friends that transcend state and national borders, which will benefit me and the department throughout my career."

Major Davis holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of South Carolina. He has been with the Lexington Police Department for nineteen years. He rose through the ranks of the department and was promoted to Lieutenant of the Criminal Investigation Division in 2006 and served there until Chief Green reassigned him to Special Operations Commander in 2012. Major Davis was promoted to Assistant Chief in April of 2015.
