DISCLAIMER
 This map is intended only as an approximation of the location of the water and sewer lines owned by the Town of Lexington. It is provided for reference purposes only and is not intended for any purpose other than preliminary identification. Any viewers are expressly advised that the exact locations of any such lines may only be determined by an examination of the instruments creating the interests owned by the Town of Lexington, and the plats and surveys prepared in connection therewith.
 Any user is cautioned that this map is not to be relied, or used for any commercial purposes. Further inquiries may be made to the Engineering Department of the Town.
