

WE CARE ABOUT YOUR SAFETY.

USE THE FOLLOWING GUIDELINES WHEN YOU DRIVE.....

Always insure that you and all your passengers are buckled up.

Don't drink and drive. Nearly half of all fatal crashes are alcohol related. If you drink, use a designated driver.

Observe and obey posted speed limits. Speeding fines are expensive and may cause your insurance rates to increase.

Impatient and aggressive drivers are becoming increasingly common on our roadways. Don't be a "road shark". Drive with respect and courtesy.

Avoid being distracted while driving:
using cell phones, eating or drinking,
applying make-up, reading
or disciplining children.

WHAT TO DO
WHEN STOPPED BY A
LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS
RESPONSIBILITIES

WHY DO POLICE STOP PEOPLE?

There are many different reasons why you might be stopped by the police. Whatever the reason, the officer needs your cooperation:

- The police may want to warn you about a potentially dangerous situation.
- You may have committed a traffic violation.
- Your vehicle may match the description of one used in a criminal act.
- The officer might think you are in trouble and need help.
- You may have witnessed a crime.

If you are stopped by the police while driving, you may feel confused, anxious or even angry. These are natural feelings, but remember, traffic stops can also be stressful and dangerous for the police officer. Each year, a number of law enforcement officers are killed or seriously injured while making the “routine” traffic stop. Police officers are especially vulnerable during the hours of darkness.

Remember:
Be courteous and cooperative during any stop by the police.

WHAT TO DO WHEN AN OFFICER STOPS YOU:

- When you see the blue overhead lights and/or hear the siren, remain calm, slow down and pull over in a safe location off the roadway.
- Do not exit your vehicle unless asked to do so. This is for safety reasons.
- Keep your hands on the steering wheel so the officer can see them.
- Inform the officer of any weapons in your vehicle and their location. Do not reach or point to the location.
- Avoid any sudden movements, especially toward the floorboard, rear seat or passenger side of the vehicle.
- Comply with the officers request to see your drivers license, proof of insurance and vehicle registration. South Carolina law requires you to carry these with you.
- If your documents are out of reach, tell the officer where they are before you reach for them.
- If there are passengers in your vehicle, encourage them to remain quiet and cooperate with instructions. You, as the operator, are solely responsible for your vehicle and its’ occupants.
- Avoid becoming argumentative. Arguing will not change the officer’s mind. If you contest the violation, you will have the opportunity to address the matter in court.
- Answer all questions truthfully.
- The officer may issue you a ticket. If you feel the reason is vague or unclear, politely ask the officer for details.
- You have the right to politely deny a request by a police officer to search your car; however, if probable cause is present, the officer has the right to search your vehicle without your consent.

Continued.....

Understand that each situation is unique and the police officer must alter his or her response to fit the circumstance. Generally, a police officer:

- Will provide his/her name upon request
- Will inform a person of the reason for being stopped
- Will only arrest a person for a crime committed in the officer’s presence, or when the officer has probable cause to believe the person has already committed the crime.

QUESTIONS/COMPLIMENTS/COMPLAINTS

If you have a question about procedures or a complaint about your treatment, contact the Lexington Police Department at 803-359-6260 and ask to speak with a supervisor. You may also send a letter of compliment if you feel the officer was particularly helpful in your situation. Compliments or complaints about officer conduct should be made within a reasonable time.
